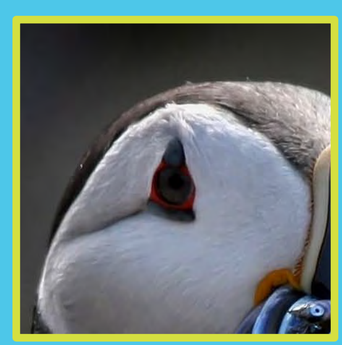
CLIMATE CHANGE

Climate change is rapidly becoming one of the greatest threats to life on earth.



Threats to animals and habitats appear in many forms and climate change is becoming a big issue.

There is now strong evidence that humans are changing the climate at a rate faster than ever seen before.

This series of posters has been produced by Zoological Society of London for the British and Irish zoo community. It highlights the impacts that climate change will have on species and habitats around the globe.

BIAZA
BRITISH & IRISH ASSOCIATION OF ZOOS & AQUARIUMS

ZSL
LIVING CONSERVATION

Find out more at zsl.org/climatechange